"As a coach and motivational speaker, I am passionate about helping people and organizations achieve their true potential. I strongly believe that to be successful in any area of life, you need to feel fulfilled in all areas of life. That fulfillment comes from getting in touch with your true self and putting it out there with confidence, in all that you do.

After all, it is only your true self that can attract the people (partners, friends, clients and colleagues) and opportunities that are truly right for you and will help you move towards the life you want to create."

Are you the CEO of Your Life?

Many of us follow paths that have been set out for us. We do what others expect of us, what we've been told we should do, or what we think we're supposed to do. But the path you take must feel right in your heart. If you have a gut feeling that something just isn't right, that's your intuition telling you it's time for a course change. Time to become the CEO of Your Life.

As a life coach, Melissa Dawn guides you to connect with your true self, core values and life purpose in order to take control of your life and steer yourself in a direction that fuels and excites you.

By asking powerful questions, Melissa guides you to uncover what it is you truly want in life and plot the steps to get there. She teaches you how to connect with your inner voice to make decisions that are best for you, and how to move past obstacles with ease and confidence.

Whether in your personal or professional life, it is vital that you are spending time on things that are aligned with your values and life purpose. Things that excite you and leave you feeling blissful at the end of each day.
